From the desk of REV FRANCIS KHOO

As we crossed the threshold into 2011, the Lord gave us a Word which we had faithfully released at our New Year's Eve Watchnight Service.

As I pondered on it and deliberated on how we should respond as a Ministry, God reminded me of a vision He had given me on 1st November 2010 wherein I saw 2 waves. The first was a deluge of blessings, opportunities, finances and material wealth. This was followed by a second wave of evil. The Lord had then given us a time frame of 6 months to *Set in Order** the things that need to be done to prepare for what is to come.

He also reminded me of conversations I had previously with leaders of other faiths. When I had asked for an honest opinion on their thoughts about Christians, their reply was "you all are very good at raising money and building nice Churches." When pressed further, they added "you all are no different from us as you Christians have the same problems as us." What an indictment! Where did we go so wrong since the days of the early primitive Christian Church? Have we lost our focus while waiting too long for Jesus to return? Have we just focused on constructing nice church buildings that we have lost our true objectives? Did Jesus die for lifeless institutions or for us humans whom He loves?

As I studied the Book of Acts, I was shown a different model from the Church that we see today. It was about people living in great expectation of His return. People built up as they "continued steadfast in the apostles doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking bread, and in prayers." It was about a time when "fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles." It was a time when "all that believed were together, and had all things common, and had sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need." Further Acts 2: 46-47 reveals to us that they continued "daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meal with gladness and singleness of heart. Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the Church daily such as should be saved.” No wonder when the gospel arrived in Corinth and Ephesus, it is believed that within 6 months, more than 50% of the cities were saved.

Is this possible in this day and age of materialism, information technology advancement and globalisation when men have become “lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, high minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God...having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof... ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of truth?” But God through the Apostle Paul in 2 Timothy 3 has already warned us that people will become like these in the last days. We have to turn back to the Word that reminds us that “all scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.”

God has already prepared His solution for these days. The Lord then brought me back to meditate again on Matthew 28:17-20. That is the KEY. All authority has already been given and it is for the purpose of being sent forth to “make disciples”. Yes, we need to immerse them in the nature and character of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and teach them to do what we have been commanded to do with the assurance that when we do so, Jesus will be with us always!

We need to go back to the Jesus model. Discipleship is not about building big churches, but building individuals to maturity through close accountable relationships as Jesus did. Jesus started with 12, that became 70, then 120; and under the anointing and tutelage of the Holy Spirit, we saw 3,000 and 5,000 being added to the Kingdom.

Can you just imagine what would happen to the Church of Jesus Christ if the majority of those who follow Jesus were matured through intimate, accountable relationships centered on the essentials of God’s Word? Self-initiating, reproducing disciples of Jesus would be the result with Kingdom Explosion through multiplication and replicating expression.

This was the vision that God gave us, leading to the establishment of a Certificate and Diploma curriculum in our Covenant Vision School of Ministry 4 years ago. It was this same vision that also led to the establishing of Covenant Vision Christian Church in 2008. We are now on the threshold of launching various Discipleship initiatives starting with Discipleship Groups. Many more things are still in the pipeline.

Time is running short before Jesus’ return. The fields are indeed white unto harvest, but the labourers are few. We need to enlarge the place of our tent. Come join us as we endeavour to equip a chosen generation, to reach lost nations, and to transform our world for Jesus!

May God bless you, your family and all that you do in all ways, in all things and at all times!

WHEN EVEN A

wrong turn is right

Rev Henson Lim

I checked the street directory for directions, got my bearings and was ready to reach my destination in good time. I had it all pictured in my head ... get onto main road, straight on, turn onto highway, look for turn-off exit and I'm there. And so I began my journey as planned. Cruising down the main road, my thoughts were suddenly interrupted by a road sign and junction I didn't expect at all. Instinctively, I turned left; only to realise it was the opposite to where I wanted to go. Not good! As I looked for a U-turn, I saw the heavy traffic jam on the opposite side of the road. I had no choice but to join the jam because of this wrong turn.

However, that was not to be at all. The jam was a long queue of cars waiting to turn into another highway. So, I drove past the long line, hoping to re-connect with the highway I missed. I couldn't find it at all. Instead, I found myself getting onto an old, old road, yet heading in the correct general direction. Then I glanced to the left and saw myself driving parallel to the highway (the one I should be on), as well as the very slow and heavy traffic on it. But there I was, zipping down this old side road at quite a speed. Praise God for the wrong turn which turned out to be right in the end!

As I pondered this incident, I am reminded of how walking with the Lord can often be the same as this little road trip. On my own, I will do my best to plan and to ensure I don't get off track. I have my goals and I know what I'd want to achieve in a given time. And yet, life is so full of surprises, challenges, unseens and detours! Before I know it, I have veered off-course or taken a wrong turn ... again! If I don't have the assurance or confidence that God is watching over me, can you imagine how stressful life would be? I am so, so thankful that there are no surprises where God is concerned. He knows exactly where I am at any given point in time and which direction I am headed.

Many of us know that God holds the plan. However, instead of resting in Him, far too many are overly worried that they may not be walking in that perfect plan, or that they may step out of God's will for them. Sadly, this cripples them big-time, leading some to "paralysis-by-analysis"! Sure, they plan, pray and proceed. But the moment the situation changes, doubt comes into their hearts and they begin to question themselves and God all over again.

I used to be like that until I discovered that God is really in total and perfect control. This means that even when I make a mistake or a wrong decision, my God is big enough to allow that error and still direct me back on track! My part is to keep in close touch with Him, to follow His leading and to commit everything to Him, allowing Him to direct my paths. The psalmist declares, "The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD and He delights in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; for the LORD upholds him with His hand." Psalm 37:23-24 Notice that the one directed by the Lord can still fall, or make a mistake. But the wonderful assurance we have is that God will not allow us to be so broken and devastated beyond hope or deliverance. I love the promise that He will be there to pick me up again, to uphold me with His hand, to put me back on track!

No one likes detours or distractions that upset our well laid-out plans. However, as in my road adventure, I have learnt to seek the Lord for wisdom and discernment to respond accordingly. If it is a consequence of my sin or a heart issue I need to deal with, I repent, and then I wait for the next set of instructions. Then again, it might be the Lord re-directing me. In such cases, I must learn obedience and walk as He leads. How especially sweet it is when I respond in obedience that I discover a beautiful scenic route along a forgotten side road in place of a tottering traffic jam on the highway!

"The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD and He delights in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; for the LORD upholds him with His hand."
Psalm 37:23-24

The Church is TWO!

That's right! Covenant Vision Christian Church has emerged from infancy and is now on the brink of bigger and better things. We believe the first two years were preparatory, with much foundation laying and community building. But now that we are in our third year, we can see that a new chapter has dawned upon us.

To mark the milestone, we celebrated with a bang on 7th November 2010 with a celebration service and a thanksgiving lunch at River View Hotel. Rev Francis, during the anniversary address, charted the direction for the church in this 3rd year. This was going to be year of Kingdom Expression! What was taught in the first 2 years, we were now to live out in our lives and our communities.

Evangelism, missions and discipleship groups are all on the agenda but we acknowledge that we would have come nowhere and would go nowhere without God's leading and the empowerment of the Holy Spirit. So as we move on in our journey, we commit to bathe everything in prayer that God will guide us in everything we do. Glory!

Church Camp 2010
June 13 - 16

The date was June 13, 2010. 140 individuals headed south to the nearby island of Batam for Covenant Vision Christian Church's very first church camp. The 4D/3N event was the result of months of planning and organising by the committee headed by Bro Henry Lim.

The objective of the camp was 2-fold – Spiritual Growth and Camaraderie. We wanted every one who attended the camp to study and grow in the knowledge of God's Word, that they may be equipped to better serve God's Kingdom in our community. We had the privilege of having Dr Neal and Sis Ruth Patterson from New Zealand as the camp speakers. Session after session, they taught, challenged and provoked us to live as Kingdom people here on earth.

The desire was also to foster a strong sense of community through family bonding; preparing the Church to work harmoniously as one body united, indivisible. The offshore location allowed for numerous opportunities to get to know each other better and for relationships to deepen. From group devotions to group performances, the campers really came together to grow and have fun. Even the children had a dedicated programme by a team from Scripture Union. From their faces, we could see them learning and having fun as well.

The very first camp was a wonderful success on many levels and we look forward to the next one come June 2011!

Project Heartbeat

A CHINESE NEW YEAR SPECIAL

In April 2010, we adopted three blocks of one-room flats in the Jalan Besar area. Every two months the Church mobilises teams to distribute food parcels and to share the love of Jesus with the residents there. We thank God that since the start of the project, we have managed to befriend and to build a rapport with some of the residents.

Our first Project Heartbeat exercise of 2011 saw us visiting all three blocks in one afternoon. We took advantage of the fact that it was the Chinese New Year season and spread the love of Jesus in the giving of an "ang pao" and a bag containing New Year goodies and oranges. Though it was raining, we believe it was God's hand in keeping the residents at home so they could receive the gifts.

It is both delightful and heart wrenching when we visit the residents. For some, the smile on their faces as they are handed the goodies mask the reality of the situation they are in. Many live in poverty and others are battling loneliness or sickness. These are especially magnified during a festive season like Chinese New Year, where fortune is sought, feasting and family reunions are a must, and merry-making is all the buzz.

One of the participants Mark Ong, who had been involved in Project Heartbeat since he and his wife Wendy had been attending the Church, shared that this time some of the old folks were comfortable enough to open up and chat. Some of these people live on their own and we are thankful for the opportunity to be able to share that Jesus loves them and that they are not alone.

As we carry on with our bi-monthly visits to the area, we pray that these residents will come to know the one true God and Jesus Christ whom He sent (John 17:3). For it is indeed God's heartbeat that none should perish and that more will come into the saving knowledge of Him.

The Great CVCC PICNIC

At CVCC, we know how to have fun too. In September 2010, we organised our very first church-wide event that was purely social in nature – the Great CVCC Picnic. Although we had booked Katong Park, the rain caused us to move the picnic back to Church.

Still, we had loads and loads of feasting and fun. The sanctuary was transformed into a game arena, then a bowling alley, and finally a dance floor. Our youth even had a badminton tournament in a nearby lane. Then there was the fabulous food. Many displayed their culinary prowess and others bought famous knick-knacks from around the island.

But what made the picnic great was the chance to bond as a community. Many-a-Sunday we come to church and leave straight after the service. This was an opportunity to get to know the people we see every week and to chat beyond the customary five minutes. There will be more such community-building initiatives – definitely.

We regularly run membership classes for those who feel they want to take the next step to move from just regular attendees to committed members of the church. In August 2010 and March 2011, we proudly welcomed 20 new members to the fold. Each of them had to go through membership classes to acquaint themselves with the vision and mission of the church and what it stands for.

In the presence of family and friends, each of these 20 pledged their commitment to the church and the community, to maintain a relationship with the Lord; to grow in maturity as a diligent disciple of Jesus Christ; to glow as lights, reflecting the True Light; to contribute their time, talents and tithes; to be trained and equipped to fulfill the call; to promote unity; and to glorify God in all they do. # BAPTISM

I am a new creation!

Over the last one year, we held not one but two baptism services for individuals who wanted to be baptised. Altogether 13 individuals wanted to identify themselves with the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Family and friends came to support them as they took the plunge and many of them testified publicly about the love of God and their decision to be baptised. We pray that each of them will now know that they are new creations in Christ and that the old has indeed passed and all things have become new (2 Corinthians 5:17).

The Children's Ministry launched their new name, Firestarters, and logo in January 2011. This new identity shows pictorially the vision and mission of the ministry; that is to nurture Spirit-led children that would impact the community and nation by equipping them to be the light of the world by reflecting God's glory in their daily lives.

The matchstick icon reminds them that it only takes a spark, to get a fire going and the flame shaped like a dove represents the Holy Spirit's role in empowering the children through the ministry.

Truly, the children are the church today and the leaders of tomorrow. As we pour into their lives, we believe that God will work mightily through them. For little is much when God is in it.

OUR VERY FIRST FAMILY OUTING

On 4th December 2010, the Children's Ministry organised a tour to two of Singapore's popular farms, Qian Hu Fish Farm and Bollywood Veggies. It was a time of fun-filled activities and bonding for the children and their parents as they learnt to appreciate nature. Despite the clouds and rain, everyone was kept cool and dry. It was amazing witnessing God's wisdom and goodness as He caused it to rain when everyone was indoors and miraculously, the rain stopped or drizzled lightly when it was time to venture outdoors.

The highlights of both farm tours were the hands-on activities. At Qian Hu Fish Farm, the children had an exciting time fishing for "longkang" fish. Some adults could not resist joining in the fun too. After about half an hour of hard work fishing, the little "fishermen" were told that they had to release the fishes back into the drain, but thankfully, Qian Hu Fish Farm had kindly prepared for each child some pre-packed fishes and a little tank to bring home as a souvenir.

At Bollywood Veggies, parents and children were getting their hands dirty potting their very own herbs. As the farm tour drew to an end, everyone was famished and what better way to end the wonderful outing than to enjoy a sumptuous lunch of home-made Nasi Lemak at the Bollywood Veggies' air-conditioned culinary dining hall.

All praise and thanks to God and the CVCC Children Ministry for organising the very first family outing for the children and their parents!

Step Up Step Out

Covenant Vision School of Ministry 3rd Graduation Ceremony

Great jubilation filled the ballroom of YWCA as 53 students were “promoted” to graduates and alumni of the Covenant Vision School of Ministry (CVSOM) on 22 January 2011. This marked the third batch of Certificate graduates and the second batch of Diploma graduates since the inception of the school.

The theme chosen for the graduation was Step Up, Step Out, a strong challenge that even as they had stepped up and responded to the Lord’s leading to be equipped for ministry, they had to now step out to make a difference in their churches, families, workplaces and communities.

The ceremony proceedings were peppered with laughter, tears of joy, cheers and plenty of applause. It was evident that family and friends present were in full support of what the graduates had chosen to do. Especially poignant was the segment during which all the graduates came forward to be prayed for. The faculty, all of whom spoke into the lives of

About the School

CVSOM is a trans-denominational ministry that provides a formal, structured programme designed to challenge Christians to be doers of the Word. The Certificate and Diploma in Practical Christian Ministry are the two programmes offered. With a key emphasis for knowledge to be applied in each person’s life and ministry, the practical approach allows students the hands-on experience, that they may be well equipped to serve effectively wherever God leads them.

For more information about the school, visit www.cvsom.org.

these 53 people, laid hands on them in an act of “commissioning”. Some of the graduates’ pastors and leaders also came forward to pray for them. It was a moving exercise not only because tears flowed, but also that the Holy Spirit was present to empower them for the next phase of their journey.

Now the real work of the ministry begins and we believe that as each of them have stepped up, they will now step out, letting their light shine before men and their good works seen, that the Heavenly Father is forever glorified.

The Hands-On Approach

If there's one thing Covenant Vision School of Ministry (CVSOM) offers that appeals to the students, past and present, it is the practical, hands-on nature of the programme. That's why the programmes are in Practical Christian Ministry. Not only do students learn in the classroom, there are 4 Growth and Application Opportunities for them to get their hands "dirty" and to minister and be ministered to. Here's what they had to say about these modules:

Encounter Weekend

“The “Let it rain!” Encounter Weekend was a time-out for the participants to meet and commune with God and for God to address each individual's unique needs. God responded by sending the Holy Spirit who moved mightily during that weekend. When it rained, it poured!”
Adrian Lee, Christalite Methodist Chapel

Silent Retreat

“I found the practical Growth & Application Opportunities to be the most rewarding part of the programme especially the Silent Retreat. Never have I been thrust into such a long period of isolation in my life. But it was in this silence that I truly encountered God!”
Spencer Chan, Wesley Methodist Church

Ministry Trip

“The programme gave me opportunities to explore and exercise my spiritual gifts. The Ministry Trip was the climax where I could put into practice every lesson that I learnt being Word-based, Faith-filled, Spirit-led.”
Esther Ng, Grace Methodist Church

Ministry Project

“The Ministry Project has allowed me to apply what I've learnt in “Introduction to Counselling” by lending a listening ear. After this experience, I don't mind being a befriender just to listen to them.”
Madeleine Chiang, Covenant Vision Christian Church

“When I was going through your website, I discovered your MEDIA CENTRE. Thank God for your team of dedicated fellow workers who have contributed so much to setting up and maintaining the centre and uploading all the precious Word of God faithfully week after week. I am one of the many beneficiaries of their giving to the Lord in this area. I make it a point to include hearing from God through your Media Centre as part of my Quiet Time with the Lord each weekday morning when I am in the office.

On Friday evenings and sometimes on Saturday afternoons when only my husband and I are at home, I will 'broadcast' the sermons on our laptop using portable speakers so that my husband too will receive 'fresh manna' from the Lord. In fact, I feel very much part of your CVCC family now after logging onto your Media Centre for so many months.

” Mabel Lui

New Media is defined simply by Wiktionary as interactive digital media, such as the Internet, as opposed to traditional media such as print and television. In the last decade, we have seen new media grow at exasperating rates resulting in rapid globalisation and the rise of virtual communities.

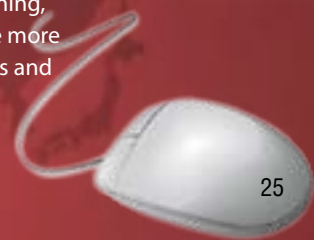

Whilst some dub the Internet as a “monster”, something they would rather shy away from, we can't ignore the fact that more and more people are jumping on the information bandwagon and benefitting from it. Technology has come so far and has bridged geographical boundaries, allowing people thousands of miles away to form relationships and build communities. Facebook, MySpace, Twitter, Blogs etc... these have now become mediums through which people, especially the next generation, now connect and communicate.

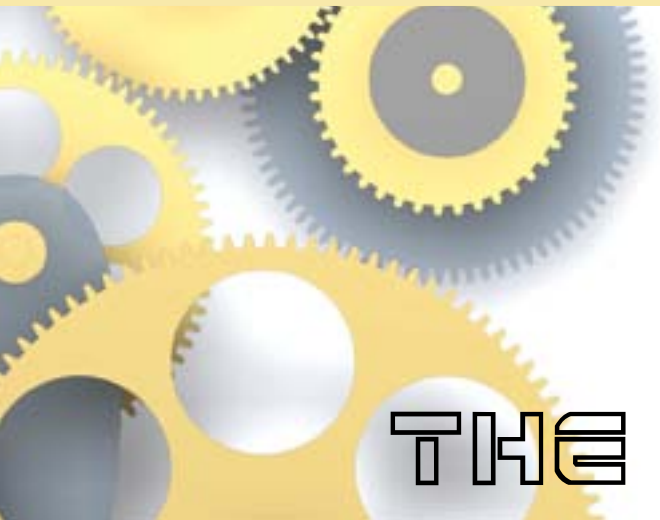

Churches, Ministries and Christian communities have also realised that these are viable channels for us to use. One can now listen to a sermon being preached halfway around the globe and people can share problems and needs and have prayers lifted up for them by someone they've never met before.

At Covenant Vision, it is our desire to utilise what's available to share the gospel, teach the Word and reach lives for Jesus. In November 2009, we launched our Media Centre, allowing anyone with an Internet connection to watch and hear our messages. Folks from as far as Mexico have tuned into our sermons. Through our websites, we have received prayer requests from countries as far as the United States and Africa. The new media avenues are rich with opportunity and we're seeing that even more now.

Even as we pursue this area of ministry, we are mindful that in everything, God has to direct and to empower. We believe this year is going to be more exciting as we further grow this area of ministry in a bid to share Jesus and win souls for Him.

THE ENGINE THAT IS PRAYER

Anyone who drives a car will tell you that the heart of a car is really its engine. Without it, a car is really just a block of metal. Likewise, prayer is the heart of the church. Without prayer, church is just a group of people operating a religious treadmill.

Even as Covenant Vision grows and the programmes increase, we cannot ignore the fact that we cannot run without prayer. The prayer ministry that is today the Covenant Vision Prayer Powerhouse operated in Rev Francis Khoo's (then Bro Francis Khoo) home even before the Ministry was birthed. A group of people faithfully came together every Monday evening to pray.

Through the years, we have seen many initiatives come forth through prayer. The church was formed after years of seeking God and travailing. We have also seen many breakthroughs and lives transformed through prayer.

But let's not forget the fuel that combusts to produce the force that drives the engine. Without the Holy Spirit, our prayers can be self-serving and ineffective. EM Bounds, in his book A Treasury of Prayer, rightly points out that God is looking for "men whom the Holy Ghost can use – men of prayer, mighty men prayer." As we pray, the Holy Spirit empowers and the power or force that is produced avails much.

Come join us to pray every Monday, 7.30pm at Covenant Vision Centre. The first Monday of the month is the Covenant Vision Christian Church Corporate prayer meeting, and every other Monday we hold our Covenant Vision Prayer Powerhouse meetings. Together as the body of Christ, we come together to enforce Christ's victory in our Country, our families, and communities.

PLOUGHING HANDS

We thank God for people who give their time to serve at Covenant Vision. Truly, the harvest is plentiful but the labourers are few. Our prayer is that more like Wendy Lim will volunteer their efforts for the glory of God. Read about how she came to serve at Covenant Vision and how she has been blessed.

About Wendy

Wendy is a student at Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts, pursuing a Bachelor in Music. Her family lives in Kuching, Sarawak and she came to Singapore a few years back to further her education. She serves faithfully in our worship team weekly as either a violinist or a keyboardist.

How did you come to serve in Covenant Vision?

When I came to Singapore, I knew that I wanted to continue serving God in the worship ministry. As I scouted around for a church to settle in, I looked at the worship team to see if I could fit in, or at least foresee myself serving with them. My aunt suggested CVCC, and assured me it's a comfortable church with good teachings. The very first time I attended the service, I knew that I would love to serve with the worship team in this church. Also, everything from the praise and worship, to the musicians, to the sermons, people and Pastors made me feel very comfortable, and I found myself coming back each Sunday. A few weeks into church, I saw in the bulletin that the worship team wanted to recruit musicians. The first week I saw the ad, I felt my heart thumping hard, but I decided to ignore it as I thought I was not ready. The second week, I saw it again in the bulletin, and this time it throbbed even more. So immediately after the service, God asked me to approach Ps George to tell him I am a music student here, and that I would like to serve in the ministry. So he gave me some forms to fill in, auditioned and interviewed me and I began serving with the worship team.”

How have you been blessed since you started serving?

Since I started serving, I have improved in my ability to express myself freely, allowing God to take over, and letting the music flow to bless those who hear it. I am still learning, and still have lots to improve on, but it has been a blessing and privilege to be able to be used by God to touch others with the music that I play. I have also grown spiritually as I serve Him. I learn to hear Him better as I spend time preparing myself before service, and He speaks to me even as I play! My own family is not physically here so I am also truly blessed to have a wonderful church family, especially the love of my fellow worship team members and Pastors. Above all, it is really the highest honour and such a joy to be able to serve Him with the gift that He has given me.”
